We have estimated that each response to this collection of information will take on average 20 minutes. Our estimate includes the time to read instructions, look through existing records, gather and maintain required data, and actually complete and review the form or response. If you have any comments on this estimate, or on how we can improve the collection and reduce the burden it causes you, please write the Federal Communications Commission, AMD-PERM, Washington, DC 20554, Paperwork Reduction Project (3060-0025). We will also accept your comments via the Internet if you send them to jboley@fcc.gov. Please DO NOT SEND COMPLETED APPLICATION FORMS TO THIS ADDRESS.

You are not required to respond to a collection of information sponsored by the Federal government, and the government may not conduct or sponsor this collection unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number or if we fail to provide you with this notice. This collection has been assigned an OMB control number of 3060-0025.

The FCC is authorized under the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, to collect the personal information we request in this form. We will use the information you provide to determine whether approving this application is in the public interest. If we believe there may be a violation or potential violation of an FCC statute, regulation, rule or order, your application may be referred to the Federal, state, or local agency responsible for investigating, prosecuting, enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation or order. In certain cases, the information in your application may be disclosed to the Department of Justice or a court or adjudicative body when (a) the FCC; or (b) any employee of the FCC; or (c) the United States Government, is a party to a proceeding before the body or has an interest in the proceeding.

This notice is required by the Privacy Act of 1974, Public Law 93-579, December 31, 1974, 5 U.S.C. Section 552a(e)(3) and the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, Public Law 104-13, October 1, 1995, 44 U.S.C. 3507.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

It is your responsibility to know the laws, treaties, rules, and regulations which currently govern any station you operate. Do not operate any radio transmitter unless such operation is authorized by a valid radio station license. Operation of an unlicensed radio transmitter is a violation of Section 301 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and is punishable by fine and/or imprisonment.

As a licensed radio operator, it is illegal for you to:

- willfully interfere with any radio communication or signal.
- transmit false or deceptive signals or communications by radio.
- falsely identify a radio station by transmitting a call sign which has not been assigned by proper authority to that station.
- transmit unidentified radio communications or signals
- without authorization, divulge, publish, or use for your benefit or the benefit of another not entitled hereto, the existence, contents, substance, purport, effect, or meaning of any interstate or foreign communications by radio, other than transmissions intended for the use of the general public, transmissions relating to ships, aircraft, vehicles, or persons in distress, or transmissions by an amateur or citizens band radio operator.
